- 03/01 All Jazz First Thursday featuring 203-753-0381x10 $ 7-15
5:30p Featuring Glenda Davenport, and Bassist John Mobilio with James Santucci on piano and drummer Jack Varanelli. Ms. Davenport began her singing career in June, 1992. She was a winner at The World Famous Apollo Theater's Amateur Night in April, 1993 and the opening act for comedian Bill Cosby in 1994 at the Performing Arts Center at Purchase College. In July 1995, she performed with tenor saxophonist Carmen Leggio's Quartet at the Saratoga Jazz Festival, Saratoga, NY. She currently performs regularly throughout the tri-state area.
John Mobilio is a jazz bassist who performs regularly with a number of jazz combos and big bands in the Connecticut, New York, Massachusetts area. As a bassist, educator, musical director and performer John brings his joy of jazz and music to audiences and students throughout Connecticut and the surrounding states.

- 03/01 Black 47 860-542-5531 $ 22-32
 8:00p In 1993 Black 47 changed Irish-American music irrevocably when they burst out of MTV screens with their hit single, Funky Ceili. Not only were people dancing in the aisles at their concerts, they introduced a new generation to the literature, politics and soul of Irish culture. Taking their name from the darkest year of the Irish Potato Famine, their music, though sometimes based on traditional melodies, is laced with rock, reggae, hip-hop, New Orleans and modern jazz; while songwriter Larry Kirwan uses his playwrighting experience and influences as varied as Yeats, Joyce and Dylan to fashion his dramatic cutting edge lyrics. Kirwan and his comrades offer a thrilling journey through history and political struggle that will not only entertain but expose audiences to a new cultural experience.

- 03/02 Eight to the Bar 860-542-5531 $ 15-25
 8:00p Listening to Eight To The Bar is a lot like driving along a time-warped highway precisely halfway between Count Basie's Kansas City and Fats Waller's Harlem, where the car radio picks up everything from Take the A Train to I Heard It Through the Grapevine. Their material, like their outlandish wardrobes and onstage choreography, is a colorful mix of forties jive, fifties melodrama, and sixties through eighties Motown. With their female vocals, saxophone, guitar, bass, keyboards and drums, this unique sextet pack a musical and visual wallop not seen in New England since the group's inception in 1975. Since that time they have released ten recordings, seven videos, have appeared nationally on HBO, VH-1, and have excited audiences from Europe to the Caribbean.

- 03/03 The Jolly Beggars 203-272-8404 $ 14-16
 7:30p The Jolly Beggars bring the rich tradition of Celtic folk music and storytelling to modern day audiences. Based out of Hartford, CT, their traditional songs and musical arrangements have exposed many to the joys of Celtic music. They tell traditional stories from Irish folklore and intersperse their musical arrangements with traditional reels and jigs. Characterized by their tight harmonies and use of guitars, mandolin, tin whistles, octave mandolin, mandola, tenor banjo, double bass, bodhran, spoons, and more, The Jolly Beggars have quickly built a solid following and continue to spread their music around the east coast. The band performs music that is largely Celtic in origin (Irish and Scottish), with some pieces coming from an extension of that music in other cultures.

- 03/10 Joyce Anderson 860-693-0263 $16-18
7:30p Roaring Brook has hosted many fine fiddlers including Johnny Cunningham, Clarence Gatemouth Brown, Rani Arbo and Laurie Lewis. The last time fiddler-troubadour and singer songwriter-guitarist Joyce Anderson was here she played an unforgettable hoedown-showdown double bill with Jake Amerding. Her RBNC concerts with Eric Andersen, Cormac McCarthy and Harvey Reid show why she was picked to join Marshall Krenshaw on The Conan O'Brien Show and by The McKrells for an appearance at Carnegie Hall. Tonight she performs selections from her solo electro-acoustic fiddle troubadour project—SWERVE! The 2011 CD release includes four original titles, "Yearning," "Get Your Swerve On," "Heartbreak" and "I Will Shine." She also puts her own spin on pop tunes, "Higher Love," "Dream a Little Dream" and "Hey Joe" that you've heard from Steve Winwood, Mama Cass and Jimi Hendrix plus the traditional tune, "Little Birdie." In honor of St. Patrick's Day, Joyce will favor us with a few Celtic fiddle tunes and we can expect a couple of fine songs from her previous discs, The Girl I Left Behind, Love and Thirst and Right Where I Should Be.

- 03/10 Brother Josecephus & The Love Revival Revolution Orchestra 860-693-9762 $15-25
 8:00p Brother Josecephus and the Love Revival Revolution Orchestra is a 12-piece explosion of righteousness blending New Orleans party music, soul in the style of Ray Charles and Al Green, a good helping of jam-bandy roots rock and a splash of upbeat (non-religious) gospel into a feel-good gumbo of love. Whenever the band takes the stage, it's Fat Tuesday of Mardi Gras in New Orleans. A Love Revival with BroJo is more than just excellent music - it's a complete spectacle, a feast for the eyes as well as the ears. They break out parasols, start each set with a parade through the audience and throw out hundreds of beads over the course of a show. BroJo is guaranteed to get everyone, from ages 2 to 102, up and dancing - as they've done numerous times at venues such as BB King's, Brooklyn Bowl, Blue Nile, Tipitina's (FQ), Harper's Ferry, The Middle East, and in New Orleans itself, playing 13 shows in 12 days during Jazz Fest. You do not want to miss this show! Bridge Street Live, 41 Bridge Street Collinsville
- 03/10 Coco Montoya 860-542-5531 $ 25-40
 8:00p "In a world of blues guitar pretenders, Coco Montoya is the real McCoy. Be prepared to get scorched." - Billboard Mentored by legendary bluesman Albert Collins, Coco went on to become the guitarist for John Mayall and the Bluesbreakers for ten years before leading his own band. A self taught guitar slinger who plays with an emotional intensity few string benders possess, he plays left-handed and up side down in the style of Albert King and Jimi Hendrix. Infinity Hall, Rt. 44 Norfolk www.infinityhall.com/calendar
- 03/10- Once on This Island Jr. (203) 438-5795 $ 20-25
 03/11 Presented by Sabrina's Encore Productions
 8:00p Performed by kids for kids! With its poignant story and catchy Caribbean flavored score, Once On This
 7:30p Island Jr. is a feast for the heart, mind, and soul. - 03/17 Mick and the Kippster 203-272-8404 $ 14-16
 7:30p Come join a couple of our talented locals who have a load of good Irishness to share on this St Patrick's Day Saturday! Mick (Mike Carbonneau) and the Kippster (Kipp Sturgeon) will be joining us with a mixed bag of Celtic favorites. Mick's specialty is the obscure traditional stuff, and Kipp knows the Broadway/Hollywood/Kingston Trio quasi Irish classics that will make the folk purists cringe while most of us happily sing along. Throw in some silly jokes and bad puns, and you'll be wondering why your friends wasted this most musical of holidays in a noisy bar with a bunch of obnoxious drunks.  7:30p The Library gives a nod to the Irish with a production by Gerry Coneely featuring a night of Irish wit, song and poetry. Coneely is a veteran of Galway's animated theatre scene. his best known parts include George in Edward Albee's "Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolf" (1992), Michael McLiammoir's "The Importance of being Oscar" (1993) and the brother in Eamon Kelly's classic, "Religious Knowledge" (1994). In 2006 he wrote and produced "The Road to Clare," which is scheduled for production again in 2012. Coneely's performance celebrates poetry, including works by Blake, Goldsmith, Shelly, Byron, Yeats and Wilde. "Poetry," explains Coneely, "gets to a place where simple words can't reach." by using narrative and poetry he combines the intellectual and the emotional in a vivid synthesis which is as stimulating as it is enlightening. - 03/17 The Revelations featuring Tre' Williams 860-693-9762 $15-25
 8:00p The Revelations featuring Tré Williams represents a renewed dawning in soul music, one that marries the concrete jungle grit of the streets with the midnight blues of the rural South. The rawness of Stax and propulsive drive of Motown has been re-imagined for contemporary listeners needing relief from timeless problems. Far from a historical artifact straining to use yesterday's sound as tomorrow's gimmick, the songs painstakingly crafted on the Revelations' debut project, Deep Soul, are born from the pain, frustrations and experience of soul men struggling to give expression to their lives and loves through song. To cull the level of unabashed honesty present on these tunes requires a return to one's roots to give them the proper weight, meaning and, most importantly, a resonance for the world.

 8:00p Cosi Fan Tutte (Thus Do All Women) - the perfect opera for those who prefer their laughter sandwiched with a slice of wry - is a deliciously ironic look at the foibles of love. We begin with two sisters, their fiancés, and a bet - Will the women be faithful? Thus we enter a world of disguises and trickery in which the women - and love itself - are put to the test. Mozart's genius turns a farce into a scintillating blend of thought provoking humor. Presented with English supertitles, this fully staged co-production features an international cast of singers conducted by Maestro Adrian Sylveen and presented by the Connecticut Virtuosi Chamber Orchestra and the Connecticut Lyric Opera. 8:00p With hits "She Loves Me", "About You Now" and Ireland's all-time best selling single "I Useta Lover" The Saw Doctors were a little- known local bar band in Tuam (pronounced "Chewam") in County Galway when they were invited by Mike Scott to be the opening act on the Waterboys' 1988 tour of Ireland and the United Kingdom. In the years since, however, The Saw Doctors have emerged as one of the most successful Irish rock bands since U2. The Washington Post calls them "one of the world's most appealing roots rock outfits." The Saw Doctors have a rabid international fan base that has been compared to that of the Grateful Dead. Fueled by those in Ireland as well as those of Irish descent in the US, UK, and elsewhere, this unofficial fan club prides itself on seeing the band live as many times as possible. Their most recent album is The Further Adventures of The Saw Doctors. Live, the band can bottle the energy of a full theatre into an intimate pub where everyone's raising their pints in harmony and unity. Especially in March!

8:00p Buskin & Batteau have been winning hearts and minds with their soulful acoustic balladry and fun-filled performances for more years than they care to remember. The Washington Post called their work "an irresistible amalgam of melodic, sensual pop, folkie grit and killer wit." And while their humor runs the gamut from topical irony ("Second Homeless") to terminal silliness ("Jews Don't Camp"), it's their unique combination of instrumental virtuosity (piano and violin, primarily, though both play other instruments as well), soaring vocal harmonies and unparalleled lyric-writing that prompts the standing ovations and rhapsodic reviews: "The most musically sophisticated act in folk" –The New York Times; "Acoustic Heaven" – The Boston Globe. And with the help of uber-percussionist Marshal Rosenberg, they manage to kick the rhythm pretty hard for a couple of seasoned troubadors.
